

Jayden Pfeifer is a Regina-based artist whose work in theatre and improvisation, as creator and performer, has spanned the last 22 years. He holds a BFA in Theatre Performance from the University of Regina (2003), and an MFA in Interdisciplinary Studies (2017), specializing in Improvisation and Ensemble Facilitation. He currently teaches Improvisation for the U of R Theatre Department. Pfeifer's monthly comedy variety show, Red Hot Riot with Jayden Pfeifer, ran for seven seasons in Regina, and he has hosted the monthly comedy show TALKIES at the RPL Film Theatre for the past six years. Jayden is an Associate Artist for Curtain Razors Theatre, and has appeared in Curtain Razors' productions of Live Duet, Bad Blood, and Carmen Angel, as well performing regularly in Burnt Sienna with Kris Alvarez. In 2020 Jayden directed wanisiniwin/ kwêski-pimâtisiw for Globe Theatre, and was a producer and lead artist for Curtain Razors' Trespassers Waltz, as part of National Arts Centre's 'Grand Acts of Theatre'. In 2021, alongside collaborators Johanna Bundon and Lee Henderson, Jayden co-created and performed in Untitled Peter Tripp Project.